

The Friend of Scholastic Journalism Award

Nomination Form

Each year, the IJEA honors an individual or group that has demonstrated outstanding commitment to scholastic journalism. In selecting honorees, the IJEA seeks to recognize those individuals and groups who have supported our mission in the following ways:

- by assisting IJEA and/or its advisers/members in promoting high standards in scholastic journalism and in elevating the status of media programs in secondary education
- by supporting opportunities for interaction of student staffs, teachers and those in the professional media whenever possible
- by serving as an exemplary model for students in secondary media programs

The award is presented at the annual ISHSPA conference in the fall, held at the University of Illinois. Past recipients include the Illinois Press Foundation (IPF) and the Illinois High School Association (IHSA).

Advisers who are members of IJEA are encouraged to submit nominations for this award. The deadline for applications is June 1, 2009.
